

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS

Honoring those who served U.S.

DAVE ALCORN

Dave Alcorn is Inspector General of the Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs in Largo, Fla.

The retired Air Force Colonel provides a central point for coordination of and responsibility for activities that promote accountability, integrity and efficiency in the department. The Inspector General conducts independent and objective audits, investigations and management reviews relating to department programs and operations.

Colonel Alcorn is an Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom veteran and served in a variety of Security Forces positions including flight commander, operations officer, Major Command and Combatant Command staff officer, five time squadron commander and a deputy group commander. He retired from active duty in 2012 after more than 26 years of service.

He graduated from Texas A&M University with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Agricultural Education and was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U.S. Air Force through their ROTC program. He has a Master of Science Degree in International Relations from Troy State University.

(As of September 2012)